

State Building Code Course Offering Announcement

When: We are now taking registrations for the fall class starting in September.

Where: URI Feinstein Providence Campus
80 Washington Street, Room 203 Providence

Instructor: John Leyden, Building Code Commissioner, State of R.I.

Fee: $475.00 – Includes 2010 SBC-1 (rev.) & SBC-2 (rev.) books

This course provides the necessary basic code administration and enforcement training for those individuals who are currently working in the field or may be interested in working as a Building Inspector. Candidates for course must have experience in the construction/inspection field to benefit from the course. State Building Code law requires attendance and successful completion of course requirements for local officials to be certified by the Building Codes Standards Committee.

For registration information please call the URI Feinstein Providence Campus Office of Special Programs at 401-277-5050 or e-mail Annie Tella at atella@uri.edu to obtain registration materials.

This is a graded, non-credit course. Pre-registration is required. No walk-ins will be accepted. Payment is due in full at the time of registration.

The University
Of Rhode Island
Feinstein
Providence Campus