To All RI Park and Carnival Ride Owners/Operators

Starting in the 2012 Season, the State of RI will start enforcing Section 23-34.1-12 of the Amusement Ride Safety Act, which states that "There is no fee for initial site inspections however, if the inspector is required to return to the site to re-inspect a ride, there shall be an abatement fee of twenty five dollars ($25.00) per ride. If an inspector is required to remain on site beyond his or her normal business hours, the licensee shall pay any additional costs incurred by the state, including overtime wages".

Please note that the current overtime wages of the State Ride Inspector is Seventy Two Dollars and eighty one cents ($72.81) per hour.

Thank you very much,

John P. Leyden, CBO
Building Code Commissioner
